Jesus spoke in parables.

Parables are often called _____ stories with _____ meanings.

Luke 20:9, "And He began to tell the people this parable: 'A man planted a vineyard and let it out to tenants and went into another country for a long while.'"

In verse 9:

_____ is the vineyard owner.

The tenants are the _____ and
_____.

In verses 10-12:

The servants are the _____ that _____ sent into the world.

The son of the vineyard owner is _____.

The son of the vineyard owner is _____ by the tenants.

This obviously points to the death of _____.
Jesus looks at the people and quotes Psalm 118, "The _____ that the builders rejected has become the _____."

We need the blessing of giving. Giving includes time talent and treasure, but it also most certainly includes sharing the _____ news of _____.

As a society we reject everything _____.
Just as the tenants killed the son of the owner, we too killed the Son of _____.

Give a brief definition of a cornerstone:

Jesus has become the chief _____.
He became the perfect _____ for our salvation.
