WELCOME to everyone, especially our guests.
Your presence is important to us.

St. Paul's is an evangelical Christian congregation, embracing historic Christian teaching on all doctrines, centered on Jesus Christ. Our desire is to bring the Gospel both to those who are searching for answers to the meaning of life and to those who desire a closer relationship with God. We here at St. Paul's have chosen to align ourselves with the teachings of the Lutheran Reformation, due to the clarity with which these help us to see the true meaning of God's Word. Specifically, St. Paul's is a ministry of the Lutheran Church -- Missouri Synod, one of America's truly biblical churches!

- Members and guests: please fill out an attendance card and place it in the offering plate to indicate your presence today. For Holy Communion, please read our confession and indicate your agreement with our beliefs by checking the box next to the names of those communing.
- Those sharing our beliefs, especially from parishes in fellowship with us, are welcome to receive.
- If you desire Holy Communion but hold a confession differing from that of this congregation, please speak with a Pastor or an Elder.
- Non-communing, baptized children are welcome to come to the table for a blessing.

Please note: Half the inner circle of individual glasses in each tray contains water with one drop of communion wine for those hesitant to drink larger amounts of wine. Those glasses with wine are rose in color.

REACHING DISCIPLES

OVER $27,000 WAS RECENTLY RAISED FOR THE FRED BOLDT FUND-A-FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP FUND!

"Let the Children Come to Me..."
FRED BOLDT
FUND-A-FAMILY
SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Jesus called to them saying, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God."

Luke 18:16

On May 20th, seventy-five people attended a benefit dinner and Live Auction for St. Paul's School's Scholarship Fund at the Red Circle Inn. We are pleased to announce, that over $27,000 was raised, including donations of sponsors and donors that were not able to attend the event. Our school currently has 154 children enrolled for the 2016-2017 year. We heartily thank all of our sponsors, donors and volunteers. They are listed on our website and in our August Epistle: <http://www.splco.org/st-pauls-lutheran-school-oconomowoc/faf2-2/>

As our school grows, so does the need for financial assistance. Our scholarship fund mission comes from Luke 18:16, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for they belong to the kingdom of God." Our school is the #1 mission of St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran Church. NO child is barred entry to our school because of financial hardship. Please note: there is a rigorous, confidential application for families requesting assistance. Families must provide proof of financial need. Church and school families can feel confident that those that receive aid truly need it. Contributions to the Scholarship Fund are welcomed throughout the year. Make checks payable to "Fred Boldt Family Scholarship Fund." Annual, weekly, or monthly donations can also be made at our secure on-line donation site: <http://www.splco.org/st-pauls-evangelical-lutheran-church-oconomowoc/online-giving/>. Memorials and planned estate giving are also ways to help assure that all children can attend our school.

SERVING DISCIPLES

THE EYES AND EARS OF JESUS

We are all called to be the eyes and ears of Jesus on Earth today. It is our duty to be watching and listening to people around us, recognizing when they have needs for care. A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

Living as a Minority, Part 10: The Power of the Gospel We Live

July 10 - 17, 2016

Living as a Minority, Part 10: The Power of the Gospel We Live

Saul, the persecutor of Christ's people, is confronted by the risen Christ, baptized, and becomes the major Christian missionary of his church. Sharing Christ, we may never know what impact our witness may have on an enemy, or how that enemy may become Christ's dynamic disciple. In other words, even with fear and danger, we should never be afraid to speak.

The Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

Verse: Luke 10:27— "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

What is Confession? Confession has two parts. First, that we confess our sins and second, that we receive absolution, that is, forgiveness, from the pastor as from God Himself, not doubting, but firmly believing that by it our sins are forgiven before God in heaven.	Kindergarten +

Collect for Living as a Minority, Part 10: The Power of the Gospel We Live

Lord God of truth, You converted the apostle Paul from persecutor of the Church to courageous preacher of the true Gospel that Jesus Christ gave Himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age. Deliver us from all false gospels, so that we remain faithful to Christ alone, whose death and resurrection are the source of our salvation; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Daily Themes for Prayer

- Sunday: Pray for the joy of the resurrection among us; for the fruit of faith nourished by the Word and Sacraments.
- Monday: Pray for faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work; for the unemployed; for the salvation and well-being of our neighbors; for schools, colleges, and seminaries; for good government and for peace.
- Tuesday: Pray for deliverance against temptation and evil; for the addicted and despairing, the tortured and oppressed; for those struggling with besetting sins.
- Wednesday: Pray for marriage and family, that husbands and wives, parents and children live in ordered harmony according to the Word of God; for parents who must raise children alone; for our communities and neighborhoods.
- Thursday: Pray for the Church and her pastors; for teachers, deacons, deaconesses, and other church workers; for missionaries and for all who serve the Church; for fruitful and salutary use of the blessed sacrament of Christ's body and blood.
- Friday: Pray for the preaching of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ and for the spread of His knowledge throughout the whole world; for the persecuted and oppressed; for the sick and dying.
- Saturday: Pray for faithfulness to the end; for the renewal of those who are withering in the faith or have fallen away; for receptive hearts and minds to God's Word on the Lord's Day; for pastors and people as they prepare to administer and receive Christ's holy gifts.

Go Where the Spirit Leads

There are three things here: first, we have to be open to hear the Holy Spirit. He knows the field/person that is ready to hear and believe. Second, we have to know where to hear the Spirit's direction. Third, we have to obey!

THE 8th SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Acts 9:1-31 ~ ESV

Pew Bible pg. 1167

But Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he went on his way, he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. And falling to the ground he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And he said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But rise and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. Saul rose from the ground, and although his eyes were opened, he saw nothing. So they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank. Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord." And the Lord said to him, "Rise and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem. And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name." But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen instrument of mine to carry my name before the Gentiles and kings and the children of Israel. For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." So Ananias departed and entered the house. And laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road by which you came has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he rose and was baptized; and taking food, he was strengthened. For some days he was with the disciples at Damascus. And immediately he proclaimed Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God." And all who heard him were amazed and said, "Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem of those who called upon this name? And has he not come here for this purpose, to bring them bound before the chief priests?" But Saul increased all the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Christ. When many days had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him, but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night in order to kill him, but his disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket. And when he had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join the disciples. And they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord, who spoke to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. So he went in and out among them at Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. And he spoke and disputed against the Hellenists. But they were seeking to kill him. And when the brothers learned this, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus. So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was being built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it multiplied.

Matthew 5:14-16 ~ ESV

Pew Bible pg. 1029

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven."
