The Day of Pentecost
4 June, A.D. 2017
Num. 11:24-30; Acts 2:1-21; John 7:37-39

A quick history of where Pentecost comes from.

Acts 2:1, "When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place."

Many miracles were witnessed on that day.

Name some:

Acts 2:21 and Joel 3:32, "And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

We don't receive the Holy Spirit in the same visible ways that the disciples did that day, but we do receive that same Holy Spirit in miraculous ways.

How do we receive the Holy Spirit?

Acts 2:38-39, And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself."

Titus 3:5-8, "He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people."
