Number 34

WELCOME to everyone, especially our guests.
Your presence is important to us.

St. Paul's is an evangelical Christian congregation, embracing historic Christian teaching on all doctrines, centered on Jesus Christ. Our desire is to bring the Gospel both to those who are searching for answers to the meaning of life and to those who desire a closer relationship with God. We here at St. Paul's have chosen to align ourselves with the teachings of the Lutheran Reformation, due to the clarity with which these help us to see the true meaning of God's Word. Specifically, St. Paul's is a ministry of the Lutheran Church -- Missouri Synod, one of America's truly biblical churches!

- Members and guests: please fill out an attendance card and place it in the offering plate to indicate your presence today. For Holy Communion, please read our confession and indicate your agreement with our beliefs by checking the box next to the names of those communing.
- Those sharing our beliefs, especially from parishes in fellowship with us, are welcome to receive.
- If you desire Holy Communion but hold a confession differing from that of this congregation, please speak with a Pastor or an Elder.
- Non-communing, baptized children are welcome to come to the table for a blessing.

Please note: Half the inner circle of individual glasses in each tray contains water with one drop of communion wine for those hesitant to drink larger amounts of wine. Those glasses with wine are rose in color.

THE 13th SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

REACHING DISCIPLES

LWML

LWML meets Tuesday, September 5th, at 7:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall. Remember your Mites!

TIME TO GROW VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are looking for help with Sunday Morning Time to Grow. If you would like to share your love for Jesus with the children of our congregation, please call Lois Wolf at 414-828-3188. We are in need of teachers, assistants & substitutes. It is fun for all!

SERVING DISCIPLES

LADIES AID

Ladies Aid will be meeting on Thursday, September 7th, at 6:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall. A full salad bar, fun and fellowship will be provided for all. Bring a friend and come hear about "HUMOR" and all its benefits. Please bring a package of napkins to be used by St. Paul's groups. Thank you.

JOY OF STEWARDSHIP

While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not cease. Genesis 8:22 Lord Jesus, in these changing times and seasons help us remember you are always with us. Amen

GROWING DISCIPLES

5th & 6th GRADE PRE-CONFIRMATION BIBLE HISTORY

Christians have lots of "what-where-when-why-how & who" questions about what God says and does in the Bible. From the beginning of time, God has woven a tapestry of human life and experience - with a special golden thread throughout explaining the mission and purpose of His Son, the Jesus Christ, the Redeemer and Savior of the world. The Bible is rich in stories, people and events which tell God's Story to us.

All congregation members are welcome to join Pastor Kelling and Lance Laugavitz on Sunday mornings - starting September 10th, as they team teach how God uses people, places, and events to shape His people on earth by faith and prepare them for salvation in Jesus Christ.

This course is designed to teach and explain Old Testament Bible history and knowledge and to get youth ready for Confirmation, but enjoyable for all ages. Parents are encouraged to join their Pre-Confirmands in these weekly lessons to enrich their own faith walk with God and build a family faith-life together. Come see and hear how God answers our questions through His Word and action.

Contact Pastor Kelling for questions - \(262\)549-2150 or jkelling2@wi.rr.com.

St. Paul's Lutheran School ~ Celebrating 140 Years

Each school year a theme is chosen and is based on a Bible verse. This year's verse is John 15:12.

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

Be a HERO for HIM!

Students, families, and staff are really having fun with this theme...

- Teachers, pastors, and staff adorned capes to welcome students on the first day of school!
- 'Raise the Praise' ~ Superheroes in each class will be recognized in our weekly Chapel services.
- Students are learning to live as superheroes in their faith:

Helpful
Encouraging
Responsible
Obedient

- Lessons are teaching children about the power of Jesus Christ as the One who defeated sin, death, and the devil.
- From the little ones in 4K to our young leaders in the middle school...all are united as St. Paul's Warriors growing in faith and in service to others.

Be sure to check the bulletin each week for upcoming school events!
We are also so excited to share our stories and testimonies with you!

Mission Statement: Helping God's children grow to be energetic servant leaders for HIM through love, respect, and a commitment to excellence.

The Congregation at Prayer

*A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer
The 13th Sunday after Pentecost: Genuine Marks
September 3–10, 2017*

Genuine Marks (Pastor Scharnell)

By His cross, Jesus has redeemed the world, and in His resurrection, He has vindicated all who trust in Him. Thus, the Christian life is a discipleship of self-sacrificing love. Since Christ Jesus has reconciled us to God, we “live peaceably with all” (Romans 12:18). By the certainty of His cross and resurrection, we “rejoice in hope,” and we are “patient in tribulation” and “constant in prayer” (Romans 12:12) This is what a life of genuine love looks like. It is a life that follows Christ’s example. God in Christ has first loved us and by His mercies our salvation is secure

The Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles’ Creed

Verse: Romans 1:16a—I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, In Our Prayers at St. Paul’s

Almighty God, Your Son willingly endured the agony and shame of the cross for our redemption. Grant us courage to take up our cross daily and follow Him wherever He leads; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Daily Themes for Prayer

- Sunday: Pray for the joy of the resurrection among us; for the fruit of faith nourished by the Word and Sacraments.
- Monday: Pray for faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work; for the unemployed; for the salvation and well-being of our neighbors; for schools, colleges, and seminaries; for good government and for peace.
- Tuesday: Pray for deliverance against temptation and evil; for the addicted and despairing, the tortured and oppressed; for those struggling with besetting sins.
- Wednesday: Pray for marriage and family, that husbands and wives, parents and children live in ordered harmony according to the Word of God; for parents who must raise children alone; for our communities and neighborhoods.
- Thursday: Pray for the Church and her pastors; for teachers, deacons, deaconesses, and other church workers; for missionaries and for all who serve the Church; for fruitful and salutary use of the blessed sacrament of Christ's body and blood.
- Friday: Pray for the preaching of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ and for the spread of His knowledge throughout the whole world; for the persecuted and oppressed; for the sick and dying.
- Saturday: Pray for faithfulness to the end; for the renewal of those who are withering in the faith or have fallen away; for receptive hearts and minds to God's Word on the Lord's Day; for pastors and people as they prepare to administer and receive Christ's holy gifts.

The Yoda Assumption (Pastor O'Donnell)

True greatness is not self-sufficient strength, but humility like that of a little child. The greatness of childlike faith receives all good things as gracious gifts from our Father in heaven. Apart from such faith, "you will never enter the kingdom of heaven," but whoever is humbled like a little child will be "the greatest in the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 18:3-4). Though in our sin we deserve to be "drowned in the depth of the sea" (Matt. 18:6), we have instead been drowned ("buried") with Christ in Baptism and then raised to the new, humble life of a child of God. The Lord sends His watchman to warn us with a word from His mouth, in order that we may not die in our iniquity, but be turned from our pride and selfishness to live (Ezek. 33:7-9). Thus, we live in humility and faith before God as well as in love for our neighbor, which "is the fulfilling of the law" (Rom. 13:10). In the reverent fear of God, we do no harm to our neighbor, but we "pay to all what is owed to them" (Rom. 13:7) and we "owe no one anything, except to love each other" (Rom. 13:8).

BOOK DISCUSSION:

Out of the Ashes: Rebuilding American Culture

with Rev. Lance O'Donnell and Rev. Steve Scharnell

The norms of contemporary Western culture increasingly reject Christianity. How are conservative and confessional Christians to deal with this? Roman Catholic cultural critic Anthony Esolen offers his thoughts in this often stunningly candid critique.

Buy the book and read the Introduction for the first meeting.

This is a book discussion, not a series of lectures. Have your Bible with you as you read, take some notes, ask some questions, and bring those to the discussion on Wednesday nights. We will not agree with everything Dr. Esolen has to say, but we will let him provoke our thoughts, and perhaps also our actions.

THE 13th SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Jeremiah 15:15-21

Pew Bible pg. 817

O Lord, you know; remember me and visit me, and take vengeance for me on my persecutors. In your forbearance take me not away; know that for your sake I bear reproach. Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O Lord, God of hosts. I did not sit in the company of revelers, nor did I rejoice; I sat alone, because your hand was upon me, for you had filled me with indignation. Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Will you be to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail? Therefore thus says the Lord: "If you return, I will restore you, and you shall stand before me. If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless, you shall be as my mouth. They shall turn to you, but you shall not turn to them. And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you, for I am with you to save you and deliver you, declares the Lord. I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless."

Romans 12:9-21

Pew Bible pg. 1205

Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." To the contrary, "if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

St. Matthew 16:21-28

Pew Bible pg. 1044

From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! This shall never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life? For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done. Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."
