Sermon on the Mount The Beatitudes

Jesus talks to His inner circle which includes all the saints.

Put the beatitudes, His blessings for you, into your own words. What do they mean to you?

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted."

"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth."

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied."

“Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.”

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.”

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

“Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

Know that these are not Law, because they are impossible for a sinful person to keep perfectly. Through the work of Jesus on the cross, through His death and resurrection, we are blessed.

All saints are gifts from God whose witness inspires us and whose example encourages us to greater faith and service to the Lord. More than merely remembering those who have gone on before us, we give thanks to God for their lives and faithful witness. We remember that saints are not people who live “perfect” lives but the redeemed of the Lord who responded to the Lord’s invitation with faith and trust. As the Church Militant, still struggling, we pledge to continue the struggle and fight the good fight of faith until we join the Church Triumphant—the Church in heaven.

“Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.”
“Yes,” says the Spirit, “they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them.”
