Learning to Go on "Spiritual Offense" for Lent

The Third Sunday in Lent.

24 Mar 2019.

Finding Meaning Within

This past month, students in middle school language arts learned about blackout poetry. A blackout poem is a type of poem that a poet writes by blacking out words to reveal a poem hidden within the words on a page. The beauty of blackout poetry, is that each poet can take the same article, book page or other piece of writing, and find their own meaning within the words on the page.

Blackout poems can be created from anything that has words on it. The poem can be short, or it can be long, depending on what the poet is trying to convey. In addition to finding the meaning within the words on the page, students created an illustration to represent the idea behind the poem, and blacked out the rest of the words with that illustration.

Mission Statement: Helping God's children grow to be energetic servant leaders for HIM through love, respect, and a commitment to excellence.

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

The Second Sunday in Lent: Fight the Good Fight, Part 2: Unvarnished

March 10 -17, 2019

Fight the Good Fight, Part 2: Unvarnished

Jesus' lament over Jerusalem. "Unvarnished." Sometimes we need a nice covering to be drawn to the truth. Sometimes we need to see it exactly as it is.

The Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Christ-Centered Theme: In Christ we are God's workmanship. (Eph. 2.10)

Apostles' Creed

Verse: Psalm 27:4 One thing I have desired of the LORD, That will I seek: That I may dwell in the house of the LORD All the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in His temple.

Philippians 3:19 "Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things." St. Paul does not want us to set our minds on earthly things, for they are passing away. This is similar to what Jesus says about storing up treasures on earth rather than storing them in heaven. Our heart tends to go where we put our treasure. This is why God commands us to live generously; not to spoil our fun but to help train us in keeping our priorities straight and our minds off earthly things.

The Catechism: Table of Duties—What the Hearers Owe Their Pastors: 1 Corinthians 9:14; Galatians 6:6-7; 1 Timothy 5:17-18

What the Hearers Owe their Pastors The Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel. 1 Corinthians 9:14 	1st grade+
Anyone who receives instructing in the word must share all good things with his instructor Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. Galatians 6:6-7 	2nd grade+
The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching. For the Scripture says, “Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading out the grain,” and “The worker deserves his wages.” 1 Timothy 5:17-18 	3rd grade+

Special Voters' Meeting Motion for 3-24-19

Whereas Diane Bleke's retirement is creating an opening for the Director of Parish Music and

Whereas the Leadership had presented options to the congregation as how to best fill that position, and

Whereas the congregation had tasked the call committee to fill this position using Option B, a full-time position that is half time church and half time day school, and

Whereas the call committee has had a difficult time finding candidates that meet the criteria of Option B (see below).

Be it resolved, that the call committee request the voting assembly amend the current standing motion, previously adopted by the voting assembly, by removing the requirement of that the Director of Parish Music also be the school band director and teacher (Option B) and give the call committee the extra latitude needed to bring the best candidate to the voting assembly for this call.

Option B

Part-Time Director of Parish Music – Part-Time Band Instructor

- Full time equivalent – one person would do both jobs
- It makes the position more appealing to candidates as it would be full-time work
- There would be an additional cost in the form of benefits as one person full time person would be in place of two part time workers
- The contract of the current band instructor would not be renewed

READINGS FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

Jeremiah 26:8–15

And when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying, “You shall die! Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant?’” And all the people gathered around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD. When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to the house of the LORD and took their seat in the entry of the New Gate of the house of the LORD. Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and to all the people, “This man deserves the sentence of death, because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears.” Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people, saying, “The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard. Now therefore mend your ways and your deeds, and obey the voice of the LORD your God, and the LORD will relent of the disaster that he has pronounced against you. But as for me, behold, I am in your hands. Do with me as seems good and right to you. Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and its inhabitants, for in truth the LORD sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.”

Philippians 3:17—4:1

Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. Therefore, my brothers, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved.

Luke 13:31–35

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to [Jesus], “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.” And he said to them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I finish my course. Nevertheless, I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the day following, for it cannot be that a prophet should perish away from Jerusalem.’ O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not! Behold, your house is forsaken. And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!’”
