GUEST INFORMATION

Welcome! If you are a guest, the following information may help you:

If you have questions, or would like more information about St. Paul's, an usher will be happy to help you.

Please fill out an attendance card, located on the pew in front of you, and place it in the offering plate.

If you have small children, there are activity bags located behind the back pews that might be helpful for your child.

HOLY COMMUNION

Please read our confession found on page 329-330 of the Lutheran Service Book and indicate your agreement with our beliefs by checking the box next to the names of those communing.

Those who share in our confession of faith of the Lord's Supper are welcome to receive.

If you hold a confession differing from this congregation, please speak with a pastor or elder. Non-communing, baptized children are welcome to come to the table for a blessing. If you are physically unable to come to the table, please let an usher know and the pastor will come to you and give you communion.

Communion Wine

The wine glasses in the center of each tray contain one drop of communion wine. The glasses that contain more wine are rose in color.

As the prelude begins, worshipers are encouraged to conclude conversation and quietly prepare for worship.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

The 2017-2019 mission grant goal for 22 grants of $2,075,000 has been PAID IN FULL. Thank you, members of St. Paul's, for supporting the LWML Mite Boxes. We have currently paid Grant #4 of the SWD grants to be completed June 2020. Keep these grants in your prayers!

Guitarists needed for summer lakeside worship

We are looking for some musicians to assist with our summer lakeside worship services. These services are held on Wednesday evenings starting at 6:30 pm from June through August. If you are interested in serving in this capacity, please contact the church office at 262.567.5001 or via email at heather@splco.org.

Lake Country Lutheran High School Choir Concert

The Lake Country Lutheran High School Choir is having a Palm Sunday Sacred Concert at 3:00 in the great hall on Sunday, April 14th. It will include music from the entire week leading up to Easter. Please come and join us for an afternoon of beautiful music.

Life Thoughts in the Church Year

Our Almighty Maker reserves the right and responsibility for decisions about life and death (Deuteronomy 32:39). Jesus has earned this authority by swallowing up death in His crucifixion. And He has proven Himself trustworthy in life-and-death matters by bringing forth joy even from sorrow in His resurrection. What a great relief! The times and terms of human lives and deaths rest securely in His loving and saving hand.

Subs needed

St. Paul's Early Childhood Center is looking for fabulous substitute teachers! Times needed vary. Need help to cover sick days and vacations. If you are interested in joining the team, please contact the Director, Christine Flores at 262.567.4881 or christine@splco.org.

We're Hiring!

St. Paul's Early Childhood Center is looking for a floater teacher. We're looking for a teacher with a passion for teaching, learning, and having fun with children. The best part about this position is being able to get to know and bond with all of the children ages 6 weeks to 5 years! The position will be 20-30 hours per week, generally afternoons-evenings. We are willing to assist the right candidate in obtaining the required education/training. For more information and to apply for the position, please contact the director, Christine Flores at 262.567.4881 or christine@splco.org.

Procession of Palms

All gather around the processional cross.

Greeting

P The grace of our Lord ☩ Jesus Christ and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C Amen.

P Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

C Hosanna to the Son of David.

Collect

P Let us pray.

Most merciful God, as the people of Jerusalem, with palms in their hands, gathered to greet Your dearly beloved Son when He came into His Holy City, grant that we may ever hail Him as our King and, when He comes again, may go forth to meet Him with trusting and steadfast hearts and follow Him in the way that leads to eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Holy Gospel

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the twelfth chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

P The next day the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" And Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, just as it is written,

"Fear not, daughter of Zion, behold, your king is coming,
sitting on a donkey's colt!"

His disciples did not understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about him and had been done to him. The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to bear witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign. So the Pharisees said to one another, "You see that you are gaining nothing. Look, the world has gone after him."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

P Let us go forth in peace,

C in the name of the Lord.

Processional Hymn: 442 All Glory, Laud, and Honor

All arrive at their places.

Greeting

P Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

C Hosanna in the highest.

The Congregation at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer
Palm Sunday: His Triumphal Entry is Mine Too
April 14-21, 2019

His Triumphal Entry is Mine Too

The King of Israel comes into His royal glory by the path of humble obedience “to the point of death, even death on a cross” (Phil. 2:8). He goes according to the Scriptures, willingly submitting to His Father’s plan for the salvation of sinners. “Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name” (Phil. 2:9). His suffering and death open the way of repentance for the forgiveness of sins because He goes to the cross bearing the sins of the world, your sins, my sins. In His resurrection, God the Father vindicates His people and has compassion on His servants. In remembrance of Him, we praise God, confessing “that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Phil. 2:11).

The Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Christ-Centered Theme: “We were buried with Him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.” (Romans 6:4).

Apostles’ Creed

Verse: Romans 8:38-39 I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, In Our Prayers at St. Paul's

Almighty and everlasting God, You sent Your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon Himself our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross. Mercifully grant that we may follow the example of His great humility and patience and be made partakers of His resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen

Daily Themes for Prayer

Sunday: Pray for the joy of the resurrection among us; for the fruit of faith nourished by the Word and Sacraments.

Monday: Pray for faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work; for the unemployed; for the salvation and well-being of our neighbors; for schools, colleges, and seminaries; for good government and for peace.

Tuesday: Pray for deliverance against temptation and evil; for the addicted and despairing, the tortured and oppressed; for those struggling with besetting sins.

Wednesday: Pray for marriage and family, that husbands and wives, parents and children live in ordered harmony according to the Word of God; for parents who must raise children alone; for our communities and neighborhoods.

Thursday: Pray for the Church and her pastors; for teachers, deacons, deaconesses, and other church workers; for missionaries and for all who serve the Church; for fruitful and salutary use of the blessed sacrament of Christ's body and blood.

Friday: Pray for the preaching of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ and for the spread of His knowledge throughout the whole world; for the persecuted and oppressed; for the sick and dying.

Saturday: Pray for faithfulness to the end; for the renewal of those who are withering in the faith or have fallen away; for receptive hearts and minds to God's Word on the Lord's Day; for pastors and people as they prepare to administer and receive Christ's holy gifts.

Looking forward to Easter Sunday

April 21, 2019

Hymns: (6am) 459, 467 (534, 475) 464

Sunrise Service: A God Who Rises (Pastor Scharnell)

In Adam, all die because all sin. The children of that first gardener have been driven out of Paradise and return to the dust whence they were taken. But now another Gardener has come, who has made His bed in the dust of the earth, and in His resurrection He has opened paradise for all the children of Adam. For "death is swallowed up in victory" (1 Cor. 15:54), and God "gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Cor. 15:57). So we each confess that "my Redeemer lives" and "in my flesh I shall see God" (Job 19:25, 26). As He has called us out of darkness into light and wiped away our tears, we behold Him now by faith and recognize His voice in the Gospel. We enter His tomb by the death of Holy Baptism, and we also share His resurrection. For as surely as He has risen, so we also one day "must rise from the dead" (John 20:9).

Hymns: (8am) 467, 461 (457, 475, 464, 477) 465

The Resurrection of Our Lord: A God Who Lives! (Pastor O'Donnell)

The Lord has promised to "create new heavens and a new earth" (Is. 65:17), in which His people shall abide in peace and joy. That new creation has begun in the bodily resurrection of Christ Jesus. All the baptized belong to that new creation. Reborn of water and the Holy Spirit, they are "the offspring of the blessed of the LORD" (Is. 65:23). The Lord rejoices and is glad in them; He hears and answers their prayers. For "if in Christ we have hope in this life only, we are of all people most to be pitied" (1 Cor. 15:19). But Christ Jesus has been raised, "the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep" (1 Cor. 15:20). We may be "perplexed about this" (Luke 24:4), perhaps even frightened and brought to our knees, because it seems like an "idle tale" (Luke 24:11). But faith clings to the Word of Christ and finds His resurrected body — not in the tomb, but in His Holy Supper.

4K Happenings

This month in the 4K classroom has been wild! The students created exhibits and have been caring for many different types of animals in their zoo. Zookeepers can care for animals and give shows, guides can give tours, sell tickets, and sell concessions, and visitors can buy tickets, take photos, and eat snacks! We have had so much fun learning about caring for animals and taking care of our zoo. This month the Retzer Nature Center will visit our classroom to teach us about recycling and the Milwaukee County Zoo will visit to teach us about animal coverings, such as fur or scales.

Next week we will start preparing for Holy Week by opening our Resurrection Eggs. Each egg is filled with an item that represents the story of Holy Week. We will spend the next two weeks learning about the true meaning of Easter and preparing to celebrate the resurrection of Christ!

What's Going On In The Art Room?

Kindergarten through eighth grade just finished up a fundraiser called Original Works, where students can create artwork that can be ordered on mugs, oven mitts, keychains and more.

Third grade and sixth grade just started learning about printmaking. Fourth grade will be learning about artist Louise Nevelson, and her mixed media sculptures. Fifth grade and seventh grade are studying and creating Op Art, or optical art. As the school year wraps up, we will be completing a lot of great projects in the art room.

Some exciting news from the art room is the great success of many of our students in the Helen Farnsworth Mears Art Show for 7th and 8th graders in Wisconsin. In the Two Dimensional (drawing/painting/collage) category, Brigitte Schlomer (7) took first place, Emma Fitzhugh(7) took second place, and Nadine Tanner(7) took third place. In the Three Dimensional (sculpture) category, Madeline Crowley(8) took first place. Annalee Duchow(8) and Madeline Crowley(8) submitted another 2D piece that received an honorable mention. Daniel Grady(8) submitted a 3D piece that also received an honorable mention. A few of these pieces will continue onto the district level contest in April.

Mission Statement: Helping God's children grow to be energetic servant leaders for HIM through love, respect, and a commitment to excellence.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Luke 22:11 – “Tell the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’ ” Did Jesus really need this man’s Upper Room? If the man had refused to let Jesus use it would the work of salvation have been derailed? Of course not. But what an honor for the man who owned this room! It is likewise with us. The Lord needs none of us, but what an honor for God to choose to use our generosity in the work of His Church.

Attention ladies:

We will again be collecting hard candy (suggestions: peppermint, ginger, root beer and lemon drops) at the mother-daughter-friend banquet for Tricia's Troop Cancer Connection. They put together chemo bags for those starting chemotherapy in Waukesha County Hospitals. The hard candy helps with dry mouth. In 2017 we collected 33 pounds of hard candy for them. Last year we collected 80 pounds. Let's see if we can collect even more this year. They are very appreciative of our help. Thank you.

Angela Bleke vocal recital

Come see Angela Bleke’s benefit recital on Sunday, April 28th, at 5:30 pm here at St. Paul’s Church. This brief 30 minute concert will feature the works of Mozart, Puccini, Rachmaninoff, Menotti and Amy Beach! This is a freewill offering recital to raise money for Angela to attend an educational, youth summer opera program in Italy, called La Musica Lirica. This program has offered Angela the role of Susana in Mozart’s opera Le Nozze di Figaro, her biggest role yet! Through this program, she will also take Italian language classes, receive private voice lessons with voice teachers from around the world and have vocal coaching with Italian opera coaches like Ubaldo Fabbri (one of Pavarotti’s own coaches). The total cost to attend this four-week program is $7,000, which includes all lessons, coaching, classes and housing. Anyone is welcome to attend and enjoy some music! Any freewill donations are welcome to help her allocate this cost, and will receive documentation for tax deductions. Please come to support her and hear beautiful music!

St. Paul’s Journeymen are looking to do a service project

Our men’s ministry group, St. Paul’s Journeymen, is looking to do a service project. If you, or someone you know, needs some help with something, please contact the church office at 262.567.5001. This group is open to all men, confirmed-age and older. Please join us at Maxim’s on the 2nd & 4th Saturdays of the month for Bible Study, as well!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

LWML scholarship opportunities

Scholarship applications are being accepted for women preparing for church work in the LCMS. Active female members of South Wisconsin District congregations who are preparing for “full time service” * and are an undergraduate at one of the Synod’s educational institutions are eligible to apply. *(Full-time service in the church is any position available through the Board of Assignments of the Synod). Forms are available at www.lwml-swd.org. Deadline is April 30, 2019.

Guide Book & Directory advertising opportunity

We have partnered with Guide Book Publishing to provide a Guide Book & Directory for our congregation that we will update & publish annually. This book is delivered directly to every member at no cost to our congregation. Local businesses are being solicited to advertise in the book, but we want to make sure our members have first access to prime locations in this new directory.

This is a great opportunity for your business because our members prefer to support businesses that support our congregation. Recent results of a survey taken by GBP show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize an advertiser over a non-advertiser and 70.9% consciously look to see who is advertising. If you are interested in advertising in our new Guide Book & Directory, please call the office at 262-567-5001.

Thank you for your support!

Update membership information

Does our church database have YOUR family membership record correct?

Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory (if you haven’t already done so).

It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred over the past year. So...

Have you changed your phone number? Moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home, and are they all included in your membership record? Do you want your record published?

If you have not already informed the church office about changes to your record, please let us know now so that the information in the new Guide Book & Directory is correct.

The church office number is 262-567-5001.

Thank you for your help!

READINGS FOR PALM SUNDAY

Deuteronomy 32:36–39

The LORD will vindicate his people and have compassion on his servants, when he sees that their power is gone and there is none remaining, bond or free. Then he will say, “Where are their gods, the rock in which they took refuge, who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise up and help you; let them be your protection!” “See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god beside me; I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand.”

Philippians 2:5–11

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

John 12:20-43

Now among those who went up to worship at the feast were some Greeks. So these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. And Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. “Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? But for this purpose I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven: “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.” The crowd that stood there and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now will the ruler of this world be cast out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.” He said this to show by what kind of death he was going to die. So the crowd answered him, “We have heard from the Law that the Christ remains forever. How can you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?” So Jesus said to them, “The light is among you for a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light.” When Jesus had said these things, he departed and hid himself from them. Though he had done so many signs before them, they still did not believe in him, so that the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: “Lord, who has believed what he heard from us, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?” Therefore they could not believe. For again Isaiah said, “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and turn, and I would heal them.” Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke of him. Nevertheless, many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the glory that comes from man more than the glory that comes from God.
