Life Thoughts in the Church Year

"Those who sow in tears shall reap with shouts of joy!" (Psalm 126:5). Choosing life isn't always easy. Enduring illnesses, giving birth, caring for children, and speaking truth in love often involve suffering. However, our good Lord forms all people—and their circumstances—for Himself. And life received from Him brings celebrations that eclipse all sorrows. Whoever trusts Christ's grace will also take hold of His glory (Philippians 3:8-11).

Subs needed

St. Paul's Early Childhood Center is looking for fabulous substitute teachers! Times needed vary. Need help to cover sick days and vacations. If you are interested in joining the team, please contact the Director, Christine Flores at 262.567.4881 or christine@splco.org.

We're Hiring!

We are willing to assist the right candidate in obtaining the required education/training. 4K Happenings

This month in the 4K classroom has been wild! The students created exhibits and have been caring for many different types of animals in their zoo. Zookeepers can care for animals and give shows, guides can give tours, sell tickets, and sell concessions, and visitors can buy tickets, take photos, and eat snacks! We have had so much fun learning about caring for animals and taking care of our zoo. This month the Retzer Nature Center will visit our classroom to teach us about recycling and the Milwaukee County Zoo will visit to teach us about animal coverings, such as fur or scales.

Next week we will start preparing for Holy Week by opening our Resurrection Eggs. Each egg is filled with an item that represents the story of Holy Week. We will spend the next two weeks learning about the true meaning of Easter and preparing to celebrate the resurrection of Christ!

What's Going On In The Art Room?

Kindergarten through eighth grade just finished up a fundraiser called Original Works, where students can create artwork that can be ordered on mugs, oven mitts, keychains and more.

Third grade and sixth grade just started learning about printmaking. Fourth grade will be learning about artist Louise Nevelson, and her mixed media sculptures. Fifth grade and seventh grade are studying and creating Op Art, or optical art. As the school year wraps up, we will be completing a lot of great projects in the art room.

Some exciting news from the art room is the great success of many of our students in the Helen Farnsworth Mears Art Show for 7th and 8th graders in Wisconsin. In the Two Dimensional (drawing/painting/collage) category, Brigitte Schlomer (7) took first place, Emma Fitzhugh(7) took second place, and Nadine Tanner(7) took third place. In the Three Dimensional (sculpture) category, Madeline Crowley(8) took first place. Annalee Duchow(8) and Madeline Crowley(8) submitted another 2D piece that received an honorable mention. Daniel Grady(8) submitted a 3D piece that also received an honorable mention. A few of these pieces will continue onto the district level contest in April.

Mission Statement: Helping God's children grow to be energetic servant leaders for HIM through love, respect, and a commitment to excellence.

The Congregation at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

The Fifth Sunday in Lent: Fight the Good Fight, Part 5: I'm Going In

April 7-14, 2019

Fight the Good Fight, Part 5: I'm Going In

Lent 5. 7 April 2019. Lk 20.9-20. Parable of the Wicked Tenants. "I'm Going In." The parable here is about the love of the landowner and his son, who risk all to call their tenants to repentance. But how about the second servant? And then the third? The third guy, especially, had to know what was coming. These represent the prophets, who were called to be participants in grace. The Son represents Christ, who knows that His death awaits, but goes forth willingly, for the "joy set before Him." (Heb 12.2) Sometimes, in Christ, there's just something you have to do. Jesus and the prophets have a lot to teach us for these moments

The Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Christ-Centered Theme: In Christ, we share in His sufferings... and in His resurrection.

Apostles' Creed

Verse: Romans 8:18 I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

It is necessary to submit to the authorities, Not only because of possible punishment but also because of conscience. This is also why you pay taxes, For the authorities are God's servants, Who give their full time to governing. Give everyone what you owe him: If you owe taxes, pay taxes, if revenue, then revenue, If respect, then respect, if honor, then honor. Romans 13:5-7	3 rd Grade +
I urge, then, first of all, That requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving Be made for everyone - For kings and all those in authority, That we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good, and pleases God our Savior. 1 Timothy 2:1-3	2 nd Grade +
Remind the people to be subject to rulers and authorities, To be obedient, To be ready to do whatever is good. Titus 3:1	1 st Grade +

His Triumphant Entry is Mine Too (Pastor Scharnell)

The King of Israel comes into His royal glory by the path of humble obedience “to the point of death, even death on a cross” (Phil. 2:8). He goes according to the Scriptures, willingly submitting to His Father’s plan for the salvation of sinners. “Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name” (Phil. 2:9). His suffering and death open the way of repentance for the forgiveness of sins because He goes to the cross bearing the sins of the world, your sins, my sins. In His resurrection, God the Father vindicates His people and has compassion on His servants. In remembrance of Him, we praise God, confessing “that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Phil. 2:11).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Luke 20:16 – “He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.” When they heard this, they said, “Surely not!” The crowds were shocked at Jesus’ parable because they took the grace of God for granted. They never thought that God would actually take “the vineyard” away from them. But we only have access to God by faith. And we can drive faith and the Holy Spirit away. That is the warning of the parable. The Lord has graciously given us His Kingdom. Let us not take it for granted, but instead let us respond with humble thanksgiving!

Angela Bleke vocal recital

Come see Angela Bleke’s benefit recital on Sunday, April 28th, at 5:30 pm here at St. Paul’s Church. This brief 30 minute concert will feature the works of Mozart, Puccini, Rachmaninoff, Menotti and Amy Beach! Through this program, she will also take Italian language classes, receive private voice lessons with voice teachers from around the world and have vocal coaching with Italian opera coaches like Ubaldo Fabbri (one of Pavarotti’s own coaches). The total cost to attend this four-week program is $7,000, which includes all lessons, coaching, classes and housing. Anyone is welcome to attend and enjoy some music! Any freewill donations are welcome to help her allocate this cost, and will receive documentation for tax deductions. Please come to support her and hear beautiful music!

Guide Book & Directory advertising opportunity

We have partnered with Guide Book Publishing to provide a Guide Book & Directory for our congregation that we will update & publish annually. This book is delivered directly to every member at no cost to our congregation. Local businesses are being solicited to advertise in the book, but we want to make sure our members have first access to prime locations in this new directory.

This is a great opportunity for your business because our members prefer to support businesses that support our congregation. Recent results of a survey taken by GBP show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize an advertiser over a non-advertiser and 70.9% consciously look to see who is advertising. If you are interested in advertising in our new Guide Book & Directory, please call the office at 262-567-5001.

Thank you for your support!

Update membership information

Does our church database have YOUR family membership record correct?

Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory (if you haven't already done so).

It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred over the past year. So...

Have you changed your phone number? Moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home, and are they all included in your membership record? Do you want your record published?

If you have not already informed the church office about changes to your record, please let us know now so that the information in the new Guide Book & Directory is correct.

The church office number is 262-567-5001.

Thank you for your help!

Please join us for a taco dinner before church to help support the teachers to travel to the 2019 LEA Convocation
to be held in St. Louis MO, October 10-12, 2019

The convocation theme is inspired by the text of the Easter hymn, “Alleluia! Jesus is Risen” (LSB 474), where phrases such as “telling the story,” “opening eyes,” “constant surprise,” “gift of the future,” and “walking the way” dominate inspirational thought.

Lutheran school educators are in the business of opening minds, both to the wonders, intricacies, blessings, and perils of all that science, social studies, mathematics, the arts, and religious studies have to offer. They must wrap all of these in a scripturally supported and Christian worldview. While secular-based education often closes minds to Scripture and Spirit-given faith, Lutheran school educators must open minds to the truth. The students and teachers alike must learn how to express their faith and knowledge in what they say, think, and do—all to the glory of God.

READINGS FOR THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

Isaiah 43:16–21

Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings forth chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: “Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild beasts will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself that they might declare my praise.”

Philippians 3:8–14

Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Luke 20:9–20

And he began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard and let it out to tenants and went into another country for a long while. When the time came, he sent a servant to the tenants, so that they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. And he sent another servant. But they also beat and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. And he sent yet a third. This one also they wounded and cast out. Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.’ But when the tenants saw him, they said to themselves, ‘This is the heir. Let us kill him, so that the inheritance may be ours.’ And they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.” When they heard this, they said, “Surely not!” But he looked directly at them and said, “What then is this that is written: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’? “Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him.” The scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him at that very hour, for they perceived that he had told this parable against them, but they feared the people. So they watched him and sent spies, who pretended to be sincere, that they might catch him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the authority and jurisdiction of the governor.
