GUEST INFORMATION

Welcome! If you are a guest, the following information may help you:

If you have questions, or would like more information about St. Paul's, an usher will be happy to help you.

Please fill out an attendance card, located on the pew in front of you, and place it in the offering plate.

If you have small children, there are activity bags located behind the back pews that might be helpful for your child.

HOLY COMMUNION

Please read our confession found on page 329-330 of the Lutheran Service Book and indicate your agreement with our beliefs by checking the box next to the names of those communing.

Those who share in our confession of faith of the Lord's Supper are welcome to receive.

If you hold a confession differing from this congregation, please speak with a pastor or elder. Non-communing, baptized children are welcome to come to the table for a blessing.

If you are physically unable to come to the table, please let an usher know and the pastor will come to you and give you communion.

Communion Wine

The wine glasses in the center of each tray contain one drop of communion wine. The glasses that contain more wine are rose in color.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Widows, Widowers and Single Seniors

Similar to everyday life we have navigated and weathered the Covid-19 world and are now, tired of sitting at home any longer, ready to re-unite. Please consider joining us for devotion worship, support and prayer, fellowship, and a bit of business. Note that we are moving back to St. Paul's for our meeting in Room 219, located on the second floor by the mailboxes. We are also going to say goodbye to meeting on the second Tuesday of each month and plan to switch to the second Wednesday. Finally, the time is a bit different, too. We will gather at 10:30. Please join us as we "Live OuR Dash". AGAIN- Room 219 at St. Paul's on the second Wednesday of each month at 10:30am. See you then. Questions? Call Pat Borgman at 262-354-4203 or Donna Fortmann at 920-342-6693. See you this coming Wednesday.

Host families needed!

The junior high singing and handbell choirs of St. John's Lutheran Church in Seward, Nebraska will be singing—and ringing!—at our 5pm and 8am Divine Services on October 23-24. Please consider hosting kids and chaperones. Contact Allison Mackie for more information at 262.567.5001 (x214) or via email at allison.mackie@splco.org.

College Care Package Ministry

For those of you interested in receiving or having a College Care Package sent to your college student, please e-mail or text me with the student's name and mailing address at school. This is a great opportunity for us to reach out to our college students during the school year and let them know we care. Please email Tracy Bain at tbain123@gmail.com or text at 262-409-6843.

Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. -Phil 2:4

Volunteers needed

We are looking for volunteers in various capacities at St. Paul's. We need people to help with the live-stream (8am), greeting and ushering. You can specify which worship service you would like to volunteer at. Please contact the church office at 262-567-5001 or via email at heather@splco.org.

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer
The 20th Sunday after Pentecost: Something's Missing
October 10 – October 17, 2021

Something's Missing

The Lord is the Author and Giver of life, as well as a consuming fire of judgment against all “who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and turn aside the needy in the gate” (Amos 5:12). “Seek the Lord and live,” therefore, by hating what is evil, loving what is good and doing what is just and right, according to His Word. “And so the Lord, the God of hosts, will be with you” (Amos 5:6, 14–15). Understand that “no one is good except God alone” (Mark 10:18). The life that you are called to live is found neither in your “great possessions,” nor in your good works, but only in Christ Jesus, apart from Him Something is missing. Let go of “all that you have” and follow Him, even unto death, and “you will have treasure in heaven” (Mark 10:21–22). Do not harden your heart against His voice, nor turn away from Him, lest you “fall away from the living God.” Rather, hear and heed His call, cling to His Word, and “exhort one another every day,” that you may remain steadfast in Christ and “firm to the end” (Heb. 3:12–15).

The Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The 20th Sunday after Pentecost (Pr23B)
10 October, A.D. 2021
Sermon Text: Mark 10:17-22

No matter how much we _____, there is always _____.

Why did the man run to Jesus with a question?

How does Luke's parallel account give us more information about the man?

Why are false religions so seductive? What question do they all fail to answer?

Deep down what are we all afraid of?

"Our hearts are idol-making factories" When you examine your heart, what idols do you find? (Do you know how to spot them?)

The Holy Spirit works through the Word of God to show us two things. What are they?

What does faith daily lead us to? WHY? What does God give us instead?

The Holy Spirit point us to _____, and there we can declare "Look....."

Why don't we know what happened to the man in our Gospel reading?

What do we need to know?

How does the Holy Spirit fill our emptiness?

Entering the Kingdom (Pastor Schockman)

To love and trust in earthly wealth is vanity. For nothing of this earth will last forever, nor can any of it grant eternal life (Eccl. 5:10). But the one who trusts in God is "occupied with joy in his heart" and is able to sleep in peace, "whether he eats little or much," because he knows that the "days of his life" are "the gift of God" (Eccl. 5:12, 18–20). The person who trusts in riches cannot sleep, because he "shall take nothing for his toil that he may carry away in his hand" (Eccl. 5:15). Therefore, it is difficult "for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God" (Mark 20:23). Indeed, it is impossible for man, yet "all things are possible with God" (Mark 20:27). Thus, the Rich Man, Jesus Christ, has made Himself poor and has gone through "the eye of a needle," through death and the grave, "to enter the kingdom of God" on our behalf (Mark 20:24–25). He is the "great high priest who has passed through the heavens" (Heb. 4:14), so that we may now enter His Sabbath rest by faith in His forgiveness (Heb. 4:3–9), He brings His kingdom to us.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Paul's garden clean-up

Our garden planting and watering crew did their job. Now, we need you to help us remove the annuals and clean up the garden. We ask you to bring your garden gloves, clippers, kneeling pads, and 1 or 2 large garden waste bags to church next Saturday morning, October 16th, at 9:15 am to get our garden cleared out and cleaned up. See you then and thank you ahead of time.

Let the little children come to me!

St. Paul's has a very strong ministry to children through its day school, but we also need to minister to children through our weekly Sunday School! We are currently in need of volunteers to be part of this vital ministry of sharing God's Word and. We especially need teachers for our 1st and 2nd graders as well as people to act as substitutes. Materials and support are provided. Please contact Carol Allen at 262-468-4292 or carol@splco.org for more information.

THE 21st SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Pastor: Jason Schockman

Title: Entering the Kingdom

Traditional Worship

LSB, Divine Service 2, pg. 167

Contemporary Worship

Special Order

THE 20th SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Amos 5:6–7, 10–15

Seek the LORD and live, lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, with none to quench it for Bethel, O you who turn justice to wormwood and cast down righteousness to the earth! They hate him who reproves in the gate, and they abhor him who speaks the truth. Therefore because you trample on the poor and you exact taxes of grain from him, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not dwell in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine. For I know how many are your transgressions and how great are your sins—you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and turn aside the needy in the gate. Therefore he who is prudent will keep silent in such a time, for it is an evil time. Seek good, and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, as you have said. Hate evil, and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Hebrews 3:12–19

Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion." For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

Mark 10:17-22

As [Jesus] was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: 'Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother.'" And he said to him, "Teacher, all these I have kept from my youth." And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.
