ANNOUNCEMENTS

News from the Church Garden Ladies

A couple of Saturdays ago, the three Church Garden Ladies, who had lost one of our trio to illness, had only one person who said she would help plant the flowers in the big garden. Knowing this would not be enough, we prayed to our Lord to move people to come and help. He answered our prayers! We were three when we started our work and ended up being seven! In 1.5 hours, we were done. We thank God who answered our prayers, blessed us, and provided the helpers we asked for. We pray He will bless all who see His work through our work.

Summer office hours

Our summer office hours are 8am to 2pm, Monday through Friday, from June 3rd through August 20th. Please make a note of it.

Summer lakeside worship services

Our Lakeside Summer worship services will run on Wednesdays through August 28th, at 6:30pm in our backyard by Fowler Lake. Please bring a chair! The sermon will be that of the weekend prior. If there is inclement weather, the worship service will be moved to the church nave.

Lord's Cupboard volunteer opportunity

Our Bimbo bread pickup has changed their location and we are looking for volunteers who will be able to pick up the bread on the mornings of our two distributions (1st and 3rd Mondays-unless a holiday or needed date change, then the following Monday). We will now be picking up at their Waukesha location instead of Oconomowoc. It is located at 1900 Airport Road, Waukesha, just south of Waukesha Airport. This is a two person job. You will be picking up about 350+ loaves of bread. A very large SUV, truck, van, or trailer will be needed. You will be driving it to church and dropping it off. It should take you about one hour to load it and then unload it. This does not include drive time. Our new pickup time is 9am. That may be a little negotiable. If possible, we could do a rotational pickup if we have enough volunteers. Please contact Mary if you have any interest and with any questions. 414.333.3421 or mary@splco.org.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Any married couple is welcome and we encourage those who are curious about the retreat and would like to hear more about it to attend. Please RSVP to Anna Luedtke via call or text at 262-337-1211 by June 14th.

Congregation at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

The Third Sunday after Pentecost: Family Connection: Honor & Obedience in the Family of God

June 9 – 16, 2024

Family Connection: Honor & Obedience in the Family of God

In Genesis 3, Adam and Eve put their family's desires above God, resulting in disaster. In Mark 3.20-35, Jesus—the new and better Adam (Rom 5)—put God above all, even family, and calls all His disciples to do the same. So, when tension between faithfulness and family or other issues tempts us to lose heart, the Spirit calls to remember and trust not in ourselves, but in the One who is raised from the dead and extends us grace. (2 Cor 4.13-5.1)

Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

Christ-Centered Theme: In Christ, we fear, love, and trust in God above all things.

Verse: Romans 3:21-22a But now the righteousness of God apart from the law is revealed, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, even the righteousness of God which is through faith in Jesus Christ to all and on all who believe.

Psalm: Psalm 34 and/or the appointed daily psalms for General Psalms in Psalm Schedule LSB, p. 304

Catechism: The Lord's Prayer—The Second Petition

The Lord's Prayer (Second Petition) Thy kingdom come.	Preschool +
What does this mean? The kingdom of God certainly comes by itself without our prayer, but we pray in this petition that it may come to us also.	1 st Grade +
How does God's kingdom come? God's kingdom comes when our heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit, so that by His grace we believe His holy Word and lead godly lives here in time and there in eternity.	2 nd Grade +

Family Connection: Cultivation vs. Control (Pastor O'Donnell)

Likening the promised Savior to a tree and all the peoples of the world to birds, the Lord said through the prophet Ezekiel, "Under the messianic tree will dwell every kind of bird." (Ezek 17.23) Indeed, Jesus Christ "died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for Him who for their sake died and was raised." (2 Cor 5.15) That means that Jesus is Lord, not us. It is His kingdom, not ours. The growth of His kingdom—in our families and globally—is a mystery. By God's grace, we plant and cultivate the seed of Christ's Word, but HE provides the growth. (See Mk 4.26-34)

MARRIAGE RETREAT

Jamie & Jill George

We are observing June as “Biblical Marriage Month” at St. Paul’s. We asked some of our marriage retreat participants to fill out a questionnaire answering three questions.

1. What’s your secret to a happy marriage?

† First of all, Jesus has to be the center of each of your lives so He can be the center of your marriage. Marriage is a commitment we have made to one another in front of family and friends before God to love one another even on our worst days. Jamie’s phrase to me is, “Some days I have to love you a little more than other days.” Thanks be to God for a husband who doesn’t keep a record of my wrongs and loves me despite my failings. Jamie also tries to make me laugh every day which is a sentiment he has shared with our children and their spouses.

2. How do you keep Christ at the center of your marriage?

† We attend church and Bible study weekly. We pray together, even when we go out to dinner. We recognize that we are sinners in need of a Savior. We have placed our family life ahead of extraneous desires as we have raised our children and now support them in their married lives.

3. What do you enjoy about the St. Paul’s marriage retreat?

† We love the retreat firstly because of the deep dive into the Bible surrounded by old friends and ones we are just meeting for the first time. The comradery built over the weekend during the social hours, meal times, and game night have really helped us build friendships in the church. We also appreciate the time we spend together examining our goals and relaxing in a beautiful resort room.

Oconomowoc, Wisconsin

The 3rd Sunday after Pentecost
9 June, A.D. 2024
Gen 3.8-15; 2 Cor 4.13-5.1; Mk 3.20-35

Introduction

Why is Jesus' family "holy"?

What are some of the things that led up to the account in Mark 3 with Jesus' family?

What responses did Jesus' teachings arouse?

CCT: Christ calls _____ to fear, love, and trust in God above all things.

A. Jesus's Family

What did Jesus' family say about him in Mk 3.20-21? (How does that inform our hearing of vv.31-35?)

What are some things said of and by Mary that make the above somewhat confounding? (See Lk 1.28, 38)

What did Simeon say that helps us understand Mk 3.20-21, 31-35? (See Lk 2.34-35)

Consider the above, and John 7.3-5 and John 19.25-27. What do these say about the faith of Jesus' brothers?

Yet, what do we also know about Jesus' brothers? (See bk of James; Acts 1.14)

B. Our Families

Why, like Jesus' family, do we "not lose heart" (2 Cor 4.16-17; Gal 3.27)

Conclusion

When Jesus confronts His family—and our families—with the truth, to what is He calling us?

How does this quotation from a recent funeral summarize a faithful ordering of one's life?

She continuously emphasized and exemplified living each day in a way that put God before family and family before one's self.

The Third Sunday after Pentecost

Old Testament: Genesis 3:8–15

They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. But the LORD God called to the man and said to him, "Where are you?" And he said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself." He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate." Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

The LORD God said to the serpent,
"Because you have done this,
cursed are you above all livestock
and above all beasts of the field;
on your belly you shall go,
and dust you shall eat
all the days of your life.
I will put enmity between you and the woman,
and between your offspring and her offspring;
he shall bruise your head,
and you shall bruise his heel."

Epistle: 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, "I believed, and so I spoke," we also believe, and so we also speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence. For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

For we know that if the tent, which is our earthly home, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Holy Gospel: Mark 3:20-35

Then [Jesus] went home, and the crowd gathered again, so that they could not even eat. And when his family heard it, they went out to seize him, for they were saying, "He is out of his mind."

And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "by the prince of demons he casts out the demons." And he called them to him and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. Then indeed he may plunder his house.

"Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the children of man, and whatever blasphemies they utter, but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"— for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

And his mother and his brothers came, and standing outside they sent to him and called him. And a crowd was sitting around him, and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers are outside, seeking you." And he answered them, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking about at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother."
