The Second Sunday after the Epiphany

Old Testament Reading: Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet,
until her righteousness goes forth as brightness,
and her salvation as a burning torch.
The nations shall see your righteousness,
and all the kings your glory,
and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give.

You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate,
but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;
for the Lord delights in you,
and your land shall be married.

For as a young man marries a young woman,
so shall your sons marry you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

Epistle: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans you were led astray to mute idols, however you were led. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking in the Spirit of God ever says "Jesus is accursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except in the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.

Holy Gospel: John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

Because of Christ, God Delights in YOU, His Bride

by Rev. Jason A. Schockman, Associate Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church
Oconomowoc, Wisconsin

The Second Sunday after the Epiphany
19 January, A.D. 2025
Is 62.1-5; 1 Cor 12.1-11; Jn 2.1-11

Why does God name Jerusalem as "Forsaken" and "Desolate"?

What other situations in life are forsaken and desolate a good description of?

For whose sake will God not remain silent?

How did Jesus act the same way?

Then what was left for Jesus to do?

The Lord changes the name we've been called. He calls us "Beulah" - Married. Where does this happen to you?

When He promises you His faithfulness, what comes with it?

You go from forsaken to _____. From desolate to _____. You have a new _____ and a new _____.

Receiving and giving the love and hope of Christ

WELCOME TO THE INFANT ROOM!

In our class, playing is learning! We work on many developmental milestones during our time in the baby room. When they are little, we work on basic things like rolling, sitting up, crawling, and grasping toys. They also start eating baby food and are discovering their voices and personalities! The older babies are learning skills like stacking blocks, rolling balls, simple puzzles, and sorting shapes in the shape sorter. We also do crafts with painting, coloring, and do fun sensory activities.

Finger-painting is always a fun time with the babies! They all love stories, so twice a week, some 7th graders come down and read to them. Once a week, grade schoolers come down with Miss Mackie to do music class. They really enjoy this and it's fun to learn new songs to sing with them. One of our favorite things is to go for rides in the buggy. We always see some friendly faces and the big kids always like to say hello! The babies love exploring their world around them and are always discovering new things! If you're ever visiting the ECC, come say hi to the babies!

Congregation at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

The Second Sunday after the Epiphany: Because of Christ, God delights in YOU, His Bride
January 19 – 26, 2025

Because of Christ, God delights in YOU, His Bride

When Jesus turned water into wine at the wedding in Cana, it was “the first of his signs” by which He “manifested his glory” (John 2:11). It pointed to His coming “hour,” when He was lifted up on the cross for the forgiveness of sins and the life of the world (John 2:4; 12:23–32). The glory of the cross is incomprehensible apart from the Word and Spirit of God, but disciples of Jesus recognize that glory in the Gospel, and so they believe in Him. Jesus does not wait for us to discover Him on our own, but He seeks out the forsaken and the desolate. He unites us to Himself in Baptism. He adorns us with His own beautiful righteousness as a bride, and delights in us “as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride” (Is. 62:4–5). He calls you the church to be His Bride, purified by the washing of water with His Word and bids us the good wine that He pours out in the new testament in His blood.

Order of Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

Verse: Galatians 3:26-27 You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

Psalm: Psalm 66 and/or the appointed daily psalms for General Psalms in Psalm Schedule LSB, p. 304

Catechism: Sacrament of Holy Baptism: How can water do such great things?

How can water do such great things?          Certainly not just water,          but the word of God in and with the water does these things,          along with the faith which trusts this word of God in the Water.          for without God’s word the water is plain water and no Baptism.          But with the word of God it is a Baptism,          that is, a life-giving water, rich in grace,          and a washing of the new birth in the Holy Spirit,          as St. Paul says in Titus, chapter three:	3rd Grade +
He saved us through the washing of rebirth          and renewal by the Holy Spirit          whom He poured out on us generously          through Jesus Christ our Savior,          so that, having ben justifies by His grace,          we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.          This is a trustworthy saying. Titus 3:5-8	Kindergarten +           1st grade +           2nd grade +

On the Sabbath Day He Went into the Synagogue (Guest Pastor: The Rev. Dr. Neil Rand)

The text emphasizes Jesus’ habitual attendance at the synagogue, highlighting that despite his divine nature, he participated in weekly worship. The author questions why many people claiming to be connected to God neglect regular worship. The main reason given for Jesus’ attendance is obedience to God’s command to keep the Sabbath holy. Additionally, Jesus’ presence in the synagogue helps establish a spiritual foundation for individuals and communities, illustrating his dedication to worship, prayer, and hearing the Word of God. We remember “for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Reformation Tap Society talks are casual and thoughtful adult conversations about important things. The 2024-2025 RTS season explores many facets of grit and endurance under the theme “Unshakeable Joy in Christ.” Though we welcome adults of any age, topics and language are aimed at those 18-35. Our speakers understand that RTS is a public event, so the conversation won’t be raw, but our speakers are encouraged to practice candor geared towards adults. Parents of young ones should collaborate on a babysitter, then come and enjoy the beverages, food, and conversation. RTS is an opportunity to hear perspectives not regularly heard in popular culture. All are welcome.

RTS is held on the 3rd Sundays, September through May. We gather at 5 p.m., have a “beer talk” from the brewmaster at about 5:25, and at about 5:30 our speaker takes the mic. The speaker will present on a topic of interest, then take questions until 6:15 or so. (BTW, you’re welcome even if you’re not a beer fan. Other beverages are available.)
