The Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

Old Testament Reading: Genesis 15:1–6

After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision: "Fear not, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." But Abram said, "O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "Behold, you have given me no offspring, and a member of my household will be my heir." And behold, the word of the Lord came to him: "This man shall not be your heir; your very own son shall be your heir." And he brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven, and number the stars, if you are able to number them." Then he said to him, "So shall your offspring be." And he believed the Lord, and he counted it to him as righteousness.

Epistle: Hebrews 11:1–16

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God. And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God. By faith

Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.

These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city.

Holy Gospel: Luke 12:22-34

[Jesus] said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? If then you are not able to do as small a thing as that, why are you anxious about the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass, which is alive in the field today, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith! And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be worried. For all the nations of the world seek after these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you.

"Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

Being Beloved

by Rev. Lance Armstrong O'Donnell, Senior Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church
Oconomowoc, Wisconsin

The 9th Sunday after Pentecost
10 August, A.D. 2025
Gen 15.1-6; Ps 33.12-22; Heb 11.1-16; Lk 12.22-34

Introduction

"... Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on." (Luke 12:22, ESV)

"And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life?" (Luke 12:25, ESV)

"Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you." (Luke 12:31, ESV)

I. What is Anxiety?

(See Gen 15.1-3; Lk 12.22-30)

Everybody meditates . . . Like speaking, imagining, and hearing music, meditation is a natural human ability. In fact, we all meditate quite frequently, though we are mostly unaware of it because it happens spontaneously. . . A common form of spontaneous meditation is daydreaming. This usually happens when we are physically and mentally relaxed . . . In our daydreams we do not think thoughts; they come to us and occupy our minds. (John Kleinig, Grace Upon Grace, 90)

Another common form of spontaneous mediation is worrying. No one that I know decides to worry. Like daydreaming, worrying is something that happens to us. When we worry, we imagine the worst things that could happen to us and to those whom we love. Scenarios of trouble and disaster run through our minds repeatedly and obsessively, like a video loop. Like a bad dream, they take us on a trip through an imaginary experience of horror. (Kleinig, Grace Upon Grace, 91)

What is anxiety in terms of spiritual practice?

How did Abram have anxiety? You?

II. Seek First the Kingdom of God

(See Gen 15.4-6; Heb 11.8-12; Rom 6.3-6, etc.)

How did The LORD address Abram's anxiety?

How does The LORD address your anxiety?

Conclusion

CCT: Jesus Christ gives you forgiveness and _____ identity.

Congregation at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

The Ninth Sunday after Pentecost: Being Beloved

August 10 – 17, 2025

Being Beloved

Widespread research appears to confirm what any long-term teacher could tell you: young people have considerably more anxiety today than even a decade ago. Anxiety is, in many respects, disordered identity exacerbated by self-destructive communication. And the Lord Jesus has a great deal of help for the anxious. Abraham's interaction with God (Gen 15.1-6), reflection on the litany of the faithful (Hebrews 1.1-16), and Jesus' teaching on anxiety (Lk 12.22-34) help us to better who Christ is, who we actually are in Christ, and how we may more faithfully and successfully combat anxious temptations.

Order Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Christ-Centered Theme: Jesus Christ gives us forgiveness and eternal identity.

Apostles' Creed

Verse: John 14:23b Jesus said, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him."

Psalm: Psalm 48 and/or the appointed daily psalms for General Psalms in Psalm Schedule LSB, p. 304

Catechism: The Lord's Prayer—Seventh Petition and Explanation

The Lord's Prayer (Seventh Petition) But deliver us from evil	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.	2 nd Grade +

Lead Me to Christ, the Rock (Pastor O’Donnell)

In their wandering toward the promised land, the people of Israel were thirsty, lost faith, and quarreled with Moses and with The LORD, who showed them his mighty and creative power by sending water from a rock (Num 20.1-13). As with all things in the Old Testament, this pointed to something to come. Centuries later, David penned Psalm 61, by which he and Israel were reminded who their rock really was. St. Paul knew it, too (1 Cor 10.1-4), as did the “little stone” among the Apostles, who made the good confession that Jesus is “. . . the Christ, the Son of the living God.” (Mt 16.16) Since Jesus is risen from the dead, the author of salvation, the living water and cornerstone of faith, the Church’s mission is to lead people to Christ, the Rock.
