NOW HIRING!

St. Paul's ECC – Now Hiring: Two-Year-Old Teacher

Do you have a heart for little ones and a passion for sharing God's love?

Our Early Childhood Center is seeking a joyful, patient, and nurturing teacher to guide our two-year-olds as they take their first steps in learning, faith, and the fine art of sharing toys.

We're looking for someone who:

- ✧ Loves Jesus and delights in helping children grow in His love
- ✧ Brings creativity, kindness, and a calm spirit to the classroom (especially during snack time negotiations) every surface
- ✧ Works well with families and fellow staff in a supportive, faith-filled environment

Details:

- 📅 Full-time position
- 🏠 Faith-based setting
- 💖 Supportive staff and loving church community

We Offer:

- ✨ Paid time off and extended paid holiday breaks (yes, real time off!)
- ✨ Comprehensive health plan — because toddlers share everything
- ✨ A workplace filled with laughter, purpose, and the occasional missing sock
- ✨ The joy of making an eternal difference in young hearts (and maybe learning a new snack-time song or two)

If you feel called to plant seeds of faith in young lives — and don't mind a little glitter along the way — we'd love to meet you!

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

The Last Sunday of the Church Year: Jesus, Remember Me

November 23 – 30, 2025

Jesus, Remember Me* (The Rev. Dr. Richard Thompson)

This last weekend of the church year is a time when we remember and reflect on our Lord's coming at the end of time to judge the living and the dead as we confess regularly in the Apostles Creed. Some become anxious and concerned about this. What will it be like? When will it happen? How can I be sure that I am ready for his coming? Fear Not Beloved of the Lord. You have been baptized into Christ and in him you have been delivered from the domain of darkness and transferred into his kingdom, redeemed and forgiven Colossians 1:13-14. On the last day, whenever it comes, you can be sure that, in Christ, you belong to the Lord Malachi 3:16-17 and you will hear the Saviors voice, ...today you will be with me in paradise Luke 23:43.

Order Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

Verse: 1 John 3:2 Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

Psalm: Psalm 149 and/or the appointed daily psalms for General Psalms in Psalm Schedule LSB, p. 304

Catechism: The Lord's Prayer – Introduction and First Petition

The Lord's Prayer (Introduction) Our Father who art in heaven.	Preschool +
What does this mean? With these words God tenderly invites us to believe that He is our true Father and that we are His true children, so that with all boldness and confidence we may ask Him as dear children ask their dear father.	1 st Grade +
The Lord's Prayer (First Petition) Hallowed be Thy name.	Preschool +
What does this mean? God's name is certainly holy in itself, but we pray in this petition that it may be kept holy among us also.	2 nd Grade +
How is God's name kept holy? God's name is kept holy when the Word of God is taught in its truth and purity, and we, as the children of God, also lead holy lives according to it. Help us to do this dear Father in heaven! But anyone who teaches or lives contrary to God's Word profanes the name of God among us. Protect us from this, heavenly Father!	3 rd Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, In Our Prayers at St. Paul's

Lord Jesus Christ, You reign among us by the preaching of Your cross. Forgive Your people their offenses that we, being governed by Your bountiful goodness, may enter at last into Your eternal paradise; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen

Daily Themes for Prayer

- Sunday: Pray for the joy of the resurrection among us; for the fruit of faith nourished by the Word and Sacraments.
- Monday: Pray for faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work; for the unemployed; for the salvation and well-being of our neighbors; for schools, colleges, and seminaries; for good government and for peace.
- Tuesday: Pray for deliverance against temptation and evil; for the addicted and despairing, the tortured and oppressed; for those struggling with besetting sins.
- Wednesday: Pray for marriage and family, that husbands and wives, parents and children live in ordered harmony according to the Word of God; for parents who must raise children alone; for our communities and neighborhoods.
- Thursday: Pray for the Church and her pastors; for teachers, deacons, deaconesses, and other church workers; for missionaries and for all who serve the Church; for fruitful and salutary use of the blessed sacrament of Christ's body and blood.
- Friday: Pray for the preaching of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ and for the spread of His knowledge throughout the whole world; for the persecuted and oppressed; for the sick and dying.
- Saturday: Pray for faithfulness to the end; for the renewal of those who are withering in the faith or have fallen away; for receptive hearts and minds to God's Word on the Lord's Day; for pastors and people as they prepare to administer and receive Christ's holy gifts.

Advent is for Griswolds (Pastor O’Donnell)

It’s pretty easy to get “wrapped up” in the trappings of the American “Christmas” with all its lights and presents, family pilgrimages, dysfunctions, and absurd expectations. Yet, as we begin Advent, we’re reminded that Jesus came to “save us.” (See Mt 21.11-11) He came to do right for us, to love us and to fulfill the Law of God (See Rom 13.8-14) by his immaculate life, sacrificial death, and glorious resurrection. Like our forefathers in the faith, we make our ascent past the excesses and idols of our culture to the House of The LORD (See Ps 122), to the “Mountain of The LORD,” that God may “teach us His ways,” (see Isa 2.1-5) forgive us, and sanctify us for the true and eternal life for which we are designed and that is every soul’s true longing.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lord's Cupboard Food Pantry

This holiday season, the Lord's Cupboard will be providing a Thanksgiving meal food bag and a Christmas meal food bag to our neighbors who are food insecure in our community.

We will be requesting Christmas gifts and gift cards for our pantry families with children and for Shorehaven residents who may not have something under their tree on Christmas morning.

We anticipate that we will be helping more people than ever before with the current economy.

This is how you can help:

Purchase gift cards to Metro Market or Aldi
($15 increments) for the holiday food bags

Purchase gift cards to Walmart, Target or Amazon ($25 increments) for Christmas gifts

Please put your gift card/s or a cash/check donation in an envelope marked "Lord's Cupboard" and place it in the offering plate or bring it to the church office by November 30th.

You can also give a monetary donation online by going to www.splco.org, click on "Donate" button, scroll down to Lord's Cupboard.

Christmas Gifts

The Christmas Caring Trees will be located in the Narthex and in the school entryway starting November 15th with the ornaments that have the gift requests, and this is also the place to return the wrapped gifts.

Your generosity helps us serve the people in our community, and we truly appreciate ALL your help in celebrating our Lord's birth this holiday season and sharing that love with others. Thank you!

Mission Education Experience DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

June 20th - 26th, 2026

This is an opportunity to be shaped by the Gospel as you learn of the good work God is doing through His Word in the DR, and consider how that same Gospel work may impact our life together here at home.

- Learning the theological approach to mission in the DR
- A chance to live and eat in close proximity to the mission team
- Working (in the AC!) to make the seminary library more functional for the students

Young Adults (18 - 30ish)

Slots: 8 maximum (4 minimum)

Cost: ~ $1525* ($125 per day, $650 airfare)

Requirements: U.S. Passport, willingness to learn, and a desire to serve

Sign up deadline is December 30, 2025

Contact Sam Ewert at young.adults@splco.org with your interest or questions.

* There is some financial support available to defray costs, please talk to Pastor Schockman if dollars are the ONLY reason you're not going.

The Last Sunday of the Church Year

Old Testament Reading: Malachi 3:13–18

"Your words have been hard against me, says the Lord. But you say, 'How have we spoken against you?' You have said, 'It is vain to serve God. What is the profit of our keeping his charge or of walking as in mourning before the Lord of hosts? And now we call the arrogant blessed. Evildoers not only prosper but they put God to the test and they escape.'"

Then those who feared the Lord spoke with one another. The Lord paid attention and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the Lord and esteemed his name. "They shall be mine, says the Lord of hosts, in the day when I make up my treasured possession, and I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him. Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him."

Epistle: Colossians 1:13–20

He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Holy Gospel: Luke 23:27–43

And there followed [Jesus] a great multitude of the people and of women who were mourning and lamenting for him. But turning to them Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold, the days are coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!' Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.' For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

Two others, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. And when they came to the place that is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." And they cast lots to divide his garments. And the people stood by, watching, but the rulers scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." And he said to him, "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Welcome to St. Paul’s Lutheran Church,
School, & Early Childhood Center

- + Please fill out an attendance card and place it in the offering plate.
- + As the prelude begins, worshipers are encouraged to conclude conversation and quietly prepare for worship.

GUEST INFORMATION

Welcome! We’re delighted that you’ve joined us for worship.

If you have questions, or would like more information about St. Paul’s, a greeter, elder, or pastor will be happy to help you.

Please fill out an attendance card, located on the pew in front of you, and place it in the offering plate.

We welcome young children to the service. Try sitting closer to the front by a side aisle. There are activity bags located behind the back pews, and a simulcast downstairs if necessary.

HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord’s Supper is not a private meal, but a body-and-soul communion with Christ and His body, the Church. In keeping with the Lord’s instruction (cf. 1 Corinthians 11.17-34) and with the common historical practice of the church, St. Paul’s welcomes only those who are in full confessional agreement to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. If you hold a confession differing from The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod or are not yet confirmed in our confession of faith, we welcome you to come forward for a blessing (Please indicate by folding your hands over your heart.). If you are physically unable to come forward, please let an usher know and the pastor will come to you and give you communion. Those communing should mark this on the attendance card. If you have questions, our pastors will be pleased to speak with you.

Distribution and Communion Wine

Please place open hands out to receive the Body of Christ and also to indicate whether you are receiving the Blood of Christ from the common cup or the individual cup. The wine glasses in the center of each tray contain one drop of communion wine. The glasses that contain more wine are dark in color.
