LWML Mission Minute Update

The results are in for the past biennium Mission Grant Goal of $2,350,000. We closed the biennium with $506,294.35 over our goal! Mites are mighty when they are given to the Lord in prayer. We are currently working to fund Grant #1 of this biennium for $81,500 to LERT, the LCMS Office of National Mission, Disaster Response Ministry. Lutheran Early Response Teams (LERT) have more than 18,000 Lutheran volunteers who respond with 50 equipment trailers which are utilized by all 35 LCMS districts. This grant will fund half the cost of two combination bathroom/shower/laundry trailers for use by the volunteers in the disaster areas. Keep filling your Mite Box as you pray for each grant.

NOW HIRING!

St. Paul's ECC – Now Hiring: Two-Year-Old Teacher

Do you have a heart for little ones and a passion for sharing God's love?

Our Early Childhood Center is seeking a joyful, patient, and nurturing teacher to guide our two-year-olds as they take their first steps in learning, faith, and the fine art of sharing toys.

We're looking for someone who:

- ✧ Loves Jesus and delights in helping children grow in His love
- ✧ Brings creativity, kindness, and a calm spirit to the classroom (especially during snack time negotiations)
every surface
- ✧ Works well with families and fellow staff in a supportive, faith-filled environment

Details:

- 📅 Full-time position
- 🏠 Faith-based setting
- 💖 Supportive staff and loving church community

We Offer:

- ✧ Paid time off and extended paid holiday breaks (yes, real time off!)
- ✧ Comprehensive health plan — because toddlers share everything
- ✧ A workplace filled with laughter, purpose, and the occasional missing sock
- ✧ The joy of making an eternal difference in young hearts (and maybe learning a new snack-time song or two)

If you feel called to plant seeds of faith in young lives — and don't mind a little glitter along the way — we'd love to meet you!

Congregation at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

The Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost: The Sons of the Resurrection

November 9 – 16, 2025

The Sons of the Resurrection

Christians are “sons of God, being sons of the resurrection” (Luke 20:36), for the Lord our God “is not God of the dead, but of the living” (Luke 20:38). “Those who deny that there is a resurrection” (Luke 20:27) neither know the Scriptures nor the power of God, but the baptized faithful know “that the dead are raised” (Luke 20:37). For the Lord, who was and is and is to come, knows Israel’s sufferings and has “come down to deliver them” (Ex. 3:8). Moses reveals the name of Yahweh to God’s chosen people, by which He is “remembered throughout all generations” (Ex. 3:15). In contrast to that sacred remembrance of His name, St. Paul warns against the antichrist, who “takes his seat in the temple of God” (2 Thess. 2:4). That lawless man preaches and practices the activity of Satan. Christians, however, are comforted by the coming of the Lord Jesus, who slays the antichrist and refutes his false doctrine “with the breath of his mouth” (2 Thess. 2:8). By His preaching, “stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught” (2 Thess. 2:15). Hear, receive and believe God’s promise of love, comfort and good hope.

Order Meditation and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Apostles’ Creed

Christ-Centered Theme: The Triune God curbs evil and overcomes death with resurrection.

Verse: Ephesians 2:1 You He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins.

Psalm: Psalm 8 and/or the appointed daily psalms for General Psalms in Psalm Schedule LSB, p. 304

Catechism: Creed – Third Article

The Third Article I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen	Preschool +
What does this mean? I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith.	1 st Grade +
What does this mean? (continued) In the same way He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian church on earth, and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith.	2 nd Grade +

Prayers: Collects for the Week, Daily Themes for Prayer, In Our Prayers at St. Paul's

Almighty and everlasting God, You knit together Your faithful people of all times and places into Living God, Your almighty power is made known chiefly in showing mercy and pity. Grant us the fullness of Your grace to lay hold of Your promises and live forever in Your presence; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Daily Themes for Prayer

- Sunday: Pray for the joy of the resurrection among us; for the fruit of faith nourished by the Word and Sacraments.
- Monday: Pray for faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for one's calling and daily work; for the unemployed; for the salvation and well-being of our neighbors; for schools, colleges, and seminaries; for good government and for peace.
- Tuesday: Pray for deliverance against temptation and evil; for the addicted and despairing, the tortured and oppressed; for those struggling with besetting sins.
- Wednesday: Pray for marriage and family, that husbands and wives, parents and children live in ordered harmony according to the Word of God; for parents who must raise children alone; for our communities and neighborhoods.
- Thursday: Pray for the Church and her pastors; for teachers, deacons, deaconesses, and other church workers; for missionaries and for all who serve the Church; for fruitful and salutary use of the blessed sacrament of Christ's body and blood.
- Friday: Pray for the preaching of the holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ and for the spread of His knowledge throughout the whole world; for the persecuted and oppressed; for the sick and dying.
- Saturday: Pray for faithfulness to the end; for the renewal of those who are withering in the faith or have fallen away; for receptive hearts and minds to God's Word on the Lord's Day; for pastors and people as they prepare to administer and receive Christ's holy gifts.

Straighten Up! (The Rev. Dr. Nathan Meador)

This is something a frustrated parent might say to a wayward teen. It might be something that a teacher would say to a student as the end of the term draws near and the grade doesn't look good. This might be a conversation between spouses when challenges in the marriage seem to tear the fabric of the union. In all these cases, it is a stern warning and call to repentance. This is exactly that Jesus call us to in the Gospel for next week. He calls us to Straighten up! But it is more than a call repentance in the face of the End Times. It is also a call to a lively hope in the redemption that will be fulfilled when He comes in glory to deliver our redemption sealed in His completed work at the cross.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lord's Cupboard Food Pantry

This holiday season, the Lord's Cupboard will be providing a Thanksgiving meal food bag and a Christmas meal food bag to our neighbors who are food insecure in our community.

We will be requesting Christmas gifts and gift cards for our pantry families with children and for Shorehaven residents who may not have something under their tree on Christmas morning.

We anticipate that we will be helping more people than ever before with the current economy.

This is how you can help:

Purchase gift cards to Metro Market or Aldi
($15 increments) for the holiday food bags

Purchase gift cards to Walmart, Target or Amazon ($25 increments) for Christmas gifts

Please put your gift card/s or a cash/check donation in an envelope marked "Lord's Cupboard" and place it in the offering plate or bring it to the church office by November 30th.

You can also give a monetary donation online by going to www.splco.org, click on "Donate" button, scroll down to Lord's Cupboard.

Christmas Gifts

The Christmas Caring Trees will be located in the Narthex and in the school entryway starting November 15th with the ornaments that have the gift requests, and this is also the place to return the wrapped gifts.

Your generosity helps us serve the people in our community, and we truly appreciate ALL your help in celebrating our Lord's birth this holiday season and sharing that love with others. Thank you!

REFORMATION TAP SOCIETY

Theology and conversation with a bit of hops.

Reformation Tap Society talks are casual and thoughtful adult conversations about important things. Under the theme, "Lead Me to Christ, the Rock," the 2025-2026 Reformation Tap Society season explores the various ways in which Christ is the foundation of a holy and purposeful life. Though we welcome adults of any age, topics and language are aimed at those 18-35. Our speakers understand that RTS is a public event, so the conversation won't be raw, but our speakers are encouraged to practice candor geared towards younger adults. Parents of children under high school age should collaborate on a babysitter, then come and enjoy the beverages, food, and conversation. RTS is an opportunity to hear perspectives not regularly heard in popular culture. All are welcome.

RTS is held on the 3rd Sundays, September through May. We gather at 5pm, have a "beer talk" from the brewmaster at about 5:25, and at about 5:30 our speaker takes the mic. The speaker will present on a topic of interest, then take questions until 6:15 or so. (BTW, you're welcome even if you're not a beer fan. Other beverages are available.)

The Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost

Old Testament Reading: Exodus 3:1–15

Now Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian, and he led his flock to the west side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. And the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. He looked, and behold, the bush was burning, yet it was not consumed. And Moses said, "I will turn aside to see this great sight, why the bush is not burned." When the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Do not come near; take your sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters. I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. And now, behold, the cry of the people of Israel has come to me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. Come, I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?" He said, "But I will be with you, and this shall be the sign for you, that I have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain."

Then Moses said to God, "If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to Moses, "I am who I am." And he said, "Say this to the people of Israel, 'I am has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Say this to the people of Israel, 'The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations."

Epistle: 2 Thessalonians 2:1–8, 13–17

Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming. . . .

But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by our spoken word or by our letter.

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

Holy Gospel: Luke 20:27–40

There came to [Jesus] some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, and they asked him a question, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife but no children, the man must take the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died without children. And the second and the third took her, and likewise all seven left no children and died. Afterward the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife."

And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage, but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the passage about the bush, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for all live to him." Then some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you have spoken well." For they no longer dared to ask him any question.

Welcome to St. Paul’s Lutheran Church,
School, & Early Childhood Center

- + Please fill out an attendance card and place it in the offering plate.
- + As the prelude begins, worshipers are encouraged to conclude conversation and quietly prepare for worship.

GUEST INFORMATION

Welcome! We’re delighted that you’ve joined us for worship.

If you have questions, or would like more information about St. Paul’s, a greeter, elder, or pastor will be happy to help you.

Please fill out an attendance card, located on the pew in front of you, and place it in the offering plate.

We welcome young children to the service. Try sitting closer to the front by a side aisle. There are activity bags located behind the back pews, and a simulcast downstairs if necessary.

HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord’s Supper is not a private meal, but a body-and-soul communion with Christ and His body, the Church. In keeping with the Lord’s instruction (cf. 1 Corinthians 11.17-34) and with the common historical practice of the church, St. Paul’s welcomes only those who are in full confessional agreement to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. If you hold a confession differing from The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod or are not yet confirmed in our confession of faith, we welcome you to come forward for a blessing (Please indicate by folding your hands over your heart.). If you are physically unable to come forward, please let an usher know and the pastor will come to you and give you communion. Those communing should mark this on the attendance card. If you have questions, our pastors will be pleased to speak with you.

Distribution and Communion Wine

Please place open hands out to receive the Body of Christ and also to indicate whether you are receiving the Blood of Christ from the common cup or the individual cup. The wine glasses in the center of each tray contain one drop of communion wine. The glasses that contain more wine are dark in color.

Sermon Outline: The Sons of the Resurrection

by Rev. Jason A. Schockman, Associate Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church
Oconomowoc, Wisconsin

The Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost
9 November, A.D. 2025
Ex 3.1-15; 2 Thess 2.1-8, 13-17; Lk 20.27-40

Who are the Sadducees? Why is their question about resurrection a bit ridiculous?

Why was the Law of the Levirate Marriage such a big deal?

What's the first thing Jesus says to the Sadducees that ISN'T included by Luke?
